Programme of Teaching Visiting Scholar: Professor Jocey Quinn

The programme aims to help students understand post-humanism, how it is used successfully in research, how it encourages interdisciplinary approaches and how they can apply it in their own doctoral level research. Finally it will introduce findings from the visiting research project on 'The humanist university in a post-human world'.

PhD Students Education

Lesson 1 (3 hours) 25th October 15.00-18.00 Aula 10
Understanding Post-humanism

Introduction
Presentation: What is Post-humanism?
Full Group: Questions and Discussion:
Small Group Work: Possibilities and Problems in Post-humanism

Lesson 2 (3 hours) 14th November 14.30-17.30 Aula 15
Creating Post-humanist Methodologies in Educational Research

Film: Beyond Words Project
Presentation: Creating a Successful Post-human Methodology
Full Group: Questions and Discussion
Small Group Work: Designing your own post-humanist methodology

Lesson 3 (3 hours) 20th November 14.30-17.30 Aula 10
Post-humanism, Nature and Learning: Developing Inter-disciplinary Approaches in Educational Research

Presentation: Researching Learning and Nature
Full Group: Questions and Discussion
Small Group Work: developing future interdisciplinary projects
Final Comments and Questions

Lesson 4 (3 hours) (International Week) 21st November 08.00-11.00 Aula 12

The Humanist University in a Post-human world

Summary of the findings of the Visiting Scholar research project

Questions and Discussion

Small Group work: What are the implications for the future of University of Macerata?

Final Comments and Ideas